

EARLY YEARS, CHILDHOOD AND FAMILY STUDIES BA (TOP-UP)

If you currently hold or are working towards a:

- Level 5 Early Years apprenticeship
- Higher Technical 5 qualification or,
- Foundation Degree in Early Years

Then we can help you top up to a full BA Honours Early Years, Childhood and Family Studies degree.

How is it delivered?

- It's online during the evening so there's no need to come on to campus
- You can study around your other commitments
- You can choose to study the course over one or two years

What will you study?

- You will study early years, childhood and family life through research-informed practice and contemporary debate
- You will have the freedom to explore the topics that matter to you - equipping you to make a difference in your workplace and community
- There are no exams; instead, you are assessed through a variety of assignments, including presentations and essays.

How much does it cost?

£5,860 - if you are based in England, you may be eligible for a Tuition Fee Loan from Student Finance England (SFE).

To secure your place or learn more about the admissions process, contact david.meechan@northampton.ac.uk

Scan to visit our course page
and find out more:

